Bulletin Advertising will win more holiday trade than any other means

Publicity is the only means of expansion. When the people are informed that you actually exist, that you have goods to sell, that you offer inducements to the purchaser, then your trade grows. This lesson has been learned by every merchant who advertises in the Evening Bulletin.

HOSPITAL SHIP RELIEF LONG OVERDUE HENNEY SUFFERS SERIOUS RELAPSE

ROBBED OF $300, RAE BUYS PAPER

Young Soares, Writer,
Has Experiences
On Coast

Rae Soares, author and general literary light, who sailed away for the mainland some months ago with the avowed intention of attending the University of Missouri, is now in California where, according to a letter received here this morning from a former member of the Bulletin staff, he is the part owner of a newspaper at Laton. Soares left here on one of the Canadian boats and landed in Vancouver, B. C.

That he met with considerable trouble in his wanderings is evidenced by the "except given below from the letter." Rae was on his first trip to the mainland, and the "Get-Rich-Quick" men must have had their eyes on the Honolulu lad who was headed for the "Show-Me" State. The letter says:

"I met Rae Soares on the street here today. He was 'touched' for $300 and a ticket to Missouri while he was coming down the Coast on a steamer, and so stopped in a rising city called Hanford by the inmates. He told me that he has bought a controlling interest in a newspaper, at Laton, and will go to work next week to make it stick. He seems to have abandoned his plans for going to the University of Missouri—they may have been stolen from his pockets along with that ticket."

HEMENWAY WILL RETURN DEC. 29TH

Acting Attorney General Whitney this morning received a letter from Attorney General Charles R. Hemenway at Washington. The letter was written Nov. 7, and at that time Hemenway was appearing before the Supreme Court in the Lanai case. Browne, McCandless' attorney, had already opened.

Mr. Hemenway stated that the lawyer supposed to be conducting the defense for Morita Keizo made such a miserable showing before the Supreme Court that he was ordered to sit down from the bench. Then Hemenway had to get up and explain his opponent's case in order to prevent his own.

Leaving San Francisco on December 23d, Mr. Hemenway hopes to arrive back here on the 29th, after a long stay in the Capital City.

Members of the Hawaiian Engineering Association can pay their dues to the financial secretary at Evening Bulletin any day between 12 and 1.

GILMAN TABLE IN SHIPWRECK

Koa Remembrance Lies
60 Feet Deep In
N.Y. Harbor

Lying in fifty feet of water in New York harbor, the beautiful Koa dining table which was sent from the islands as a testimonial and expression of the good feeling here to Gorham D. Gilman, will probably be ruined entirely before it can be extricated from the wreck of the ship on which it was taken from here.

The following extract from a letter from Mr. Gilman is explanatory: "It is particularly a pleasure to have this testimonial prominently before me, as I am most unfortunately deprived of the use of and the delightful associations connected with the table itself. I had hoped that I might have gathered my family around it on Thanksgiving Day to drink health and happiness to those who had so generously sent us such a token of remembrance.

"But instead of that, the table, which had come safely the long distance from its island source, now lies in fifty feet of water in New York harbor. In attempting to avoid a collision the captain of the steamer which was bringing the table to Boston, ran his ship upon a rock and she was sunk with her valuable cargo, my table among the rest. Efforts are being made to raise the vessel and save her cargo. I hope in due time to recover the table, even though in a damaged state, and by placing it in the hands of fully competent workmen to have it restored to its original beauty and usefulness, so that I may yet have the pleasure of assembling round it family and friends who may join with me in drinking to each and all of you in the one little word which means so much—Aloha."

TWO CANDIDATES DISOBEY THE LAW

Makanani and Lua Fail
To File Accounts
In Time

All the County candidates, with the exception of Sam Lua, the Home Rule candidate for Deputy Sheriff of Koolauloa, and Makanani, the Democratic candidate for Deputy Sheriff of Ewa, have now filed their expense accounts with County Clerk Kalanokalani.

As yesterday was the last day on which such statements, according to law, could be filed, these two gentlemen seem, technically at least, to have committed an election misdemeanor, for which the penalty prescribed by law is imprisonment for

CAMPBELL AND PRATT RETURN

Many Territorial Matters
Taken Up On Kauai

Land Commissioner Pratt and Superintendent of Public Works Marston Campbell returned this morning from the island of Kauai, where they have been on a tour of inspection with Acting Governor Mott-Smith. Many matters of importance to the different Territorial departments were taken up and tentatively disposed of. When the Acting Governor will return is not yet known, though he will probably not be back for a week or so yet. Proposed school sites were looked at in Elele and at Koloa. Good sites were found, and, if the necessary preliminary arrangements go through, will be secured by the Territory.

At Kapaa the matter of dividing the land and putting it up for sale was again taken up, with the probable result that there will be considerable of the land on sale very shortly. Kalaheo lands were inspected, both that land which is already settled and that which is proposed to open up within a short time. A site for a permanent

WILL CHARLES CLARK BE SENIOR CAPTAIN?

Rumor Has It That He Is To Succeed Capt.
Parker

While the appointments for various positions in the Police Department have not been given out by Wm. Jarrett, the Sheriff-elect, it is currently reported that Robert Waipa Parker, the senior captain, who served under several Sheriffs, will lose his position. His position, according to the reports, will be given to Chas. Clark, father-in-law of the new Sheriff.

Captain Parker does not know how he stands with Sheriff Jarrett, except that he is ready to render assistance to him (Jarrett) when he comes into office in January. The new possible senior captain, Clark, could not be found today and therefore the reports could not be confirmed.

ENGINEERS' MULES ARE IN QUARANTINE

Quadrupeds Will Not Be Turned Over For Two Weeks

When the Government mules get out of quarantine, the United States Engineer company, now stationed at Waikiki Beach, will be able to get down to business. At present the stock is in the hands of the Territorial Veterinarian, however, and are not available for use.

The mules arrived on the American-Hawaiian line freighter Texan. As the law requires that such stock be quarantined for two weeks in the custody of the Territorial Veterinarian, the Government officials and Army officers are forced to sit and

ONLY CAVALRY WILL BE SENT HERE NOW

Artillerymen Probably Will Be Next To Arrive

That, with the exception of the squadron of cavalry and, perchance, a detachment of Signal Corps men, there will be no considerable body of troops sent here for a year or more, is the opinion of an Army officer of high rank stationed here. The officer does not believe that a full signal company will be sent here at present, but rather that a small detachment will be detailed.

In regard to the probable assignment of heavy artillerymen, the officer this morning expressed it as his belief that probably four companies will be sent here to man the heavy guns as soon as the fortifications have reached a stage where the men can be made use of.

"I do not believe that the main body of the increased garrison will arrive for a year or more," the officer continued. "Probably, after the cavalry and Signal Corps comes, the next troops will be the artillerymen to man the coast defense guns."

Shooting of Heney And Haas' Suicide

A detailed account of the shooting of Prosecutor Heney by Morris Haas was brought by the Maru this morning. The following extract from the Chronicle, Nov. 14, gives the story of the crime:

The Ruet trial was tragically interrupted yesterday afternoon in the shooting of Assistant District Attorney Francis J. Heney by Morris Haas of 1848 McAllister street, an ex-convict whom Heney had offended while discharging his duties as prosecutor in a former graft trial. The crime was committed at 4:25 o'clock during a brief recess of the court, but while the room was crowded by citizens, detectives and court officials. Yet so quickly did the assassin accomplish his dastardly deed that not a move could be made to protect Heney until it was too late. The Assistant District Attorney is now at the Lane Hospital, where he is resting quietly. He has a good chance of recovery.

Ruet is at the County Jail by special order of Judge Lawlor. The whole city being horrified at the cold-blooded shooting of a public official, this means
